

TRIFLES OF THE WARDROBE

BLACK WITH COLORS

SOMBER NOTE IN FASHIONABLE GOWNS IS RELIEVED.

Transparent Materials Are Most in Favor—Dainty Dress of Thin Grained Wool Showing Golden Brown Silk Lining.

At the passing of King Edward dressmakers immediately put their heads together to make black fashionable, and the somber note is more pronounced now than ever. It would be impossible to enumerate the textures being used for black costumes, but one thing is evident—the smartest place for frocks of the most elegant sort, and under the textiles, very often, will be displayed the color note, this showing itself in a brief bit of embroidered banding or in the lining. King's blue and Egyptian blue, which is a shade of the utmost brilliancy, combined with a thin black material create a superb effect much exploited by French makers. If the color is in a wide band it is also the fad to put this across the bust of the waist and about the knees of the skirt. Again, an inkly chiffon may be hung over a slip of dull gilt or silver gauze, with a superb gilt and black, or silver and black embroidery trimming, also veiled. One frock with the silver under effect had a tulle fringe six inches deep of silver and an embroidery band, far deeper, crossing the apron of the under slip and put on the waist lining in the same way. A smart idea for the woman of means—for of course these gowns of veiled loveliness are expensive creations—is a bright vest of deep blue, vivid green or orange for a black coat suit of cloth, or serge or satin. A black satin coat suit is immensely smart, though it cannot possibly be becoming without these gay vests or some rich bit of color on the collar and cuffs. If a colored vest is used, however, a coat may only have a bit of satin in the same shade at the back of the collar, this embroidered like the vest if such trimming is used.

The illustration shows a very dainty little dress with a girlish quality, which might be made as fine or as simple as one likes. Here the frock is of a black grained wool with a dull finish and thin enough to show a golden brown silk lining. The banding is of black velvet ribbon, and the little flouncing on the bodice of the golden brown in chiffon. This unusual color note—that is unusual in this country, for the French are making a feature of the combination—is repeated in a dashing feather which holds up the side of the black beaver hat.

This dress, according to its materials, is perfectly suitable for either house or street wear, and while it responds to the touch of elegance the model is especially adapted to simple materials. The double flounce effect of the skirt is an old idea revived with ardor, house gowns innumerable and many street frocks displaying it, with the separations outlined as here with trimming or else with a plain tuck and hem finish.

Returning to the color note with black, pray let me emphasize the fact that a reckless indulgence in the combination is not regarded as either smart or in the best taste. The color used with black, unless it is in the lining of a garment, is the merest trifle—the little sparkle half revealed and half concealed which is the highest art in dress.

Mary Dean

raiment, whether gown, coat or hat, must never be all black. With infinite art the note of color is introduced, this showing on the bodices of costumes, in the collar, cuffs and vests of coat suits, in some bit of trimming put on with extra dash for hats.

Transparent materials still hold first

SEASON OF WHITE GLOVES

They Will Be Long, but Pulled Up Smoothly—Lambakin Much in Favor.

This is to be a white glove season. Both long and short white gloves will be very much worn.

Owing to the dark colors of even dress costumes this fall, matched gloves will not be much in demand, but black will be worn instead.

The short and three-quarter-length sleeves call for long gloves, and since this style prevails in dress gowns, most of these long gloves will be of kid and silk.

Lambakin is much in favor, also capes, mochas and chamols, the last in mousquetaire. There is always a demand for silk and lisle for wear with muffs, but not much black kid will be seen except for evening wear.

Long gloves are no longer worn loose and wrinkled, but are pulled up smoothly and tightly. Twelve-button lengths, therefore, are to be preferred to 16 button.

Pastel shades will be chiefly worn for evening, but soft modes will be much in favor for street dress wear also.

Spider on the Veil. The spider beauty spot veil is the latest novelty offered to women. Of course it originated in Paris.

It is a copy of a spider in black chenille and is posed outside the veil. It is almost an inch and a half in diameter. The veil is worked in imitation of a spider's web.

The veils which have been popular this season so far have been disfiguring enough with their leaves, insects, birds, aeroplanes and searlike conventional patterns as part of the mesh, but they all sink into insignificance beside the web veil with its spider adornment.

How She Manages. A woman who always gives the impression of being well supplied with millinery when she travels never takes more than one trunk with her and no hat boxes. Her secret lies in the liberal supply of trimming—flowers, wings, mousseline de soie, velvet, fur, ribbon and lace, which accompany the one hat which she puts in her single trunk. With these she can alter the trimming of her hat every day if she wishes, and as she has great taste and knows just how to adapt her hat to her requirements her alterations are always successful.

MAKING THE CORNER LIGHT

How a Long Mirror With Drapery and Flower Box Will Brighten a Dark Room.

There are several valuable hints which can be given as to how to introduce light into a naturally dark room. One plan is to use a long mirror for that purpose. By hanging the mirror in a dark corner, draping the top and sides with a pretty bit of tapestry and placing a flower-box in which will be "growing" artificial flowers, to be reflected in the glass, you have an attractive and ornamental piece of furniture. White framed pictures with glass over them are useful too for reflecting light and shedding it into the room. Many rooms are so badly lighted that it is impossible, unless one sits close against the window, to find a suitable place for reading or sewing, and this accounts for many a case of headache, weak eyes, wrinkles and other unpleasant things.

DON'T NEGLECT YOUR KIDNEYS.

Little kidney troubles gradually grow more serious and pave the way to dropsy, diabetes, and fatal Bright's disease. Begin using Doan's Kidney Pills at the first sign of trouble. They cure all kidney ills.

Mrs. J. R. Hayes, Anamosa, Iowa, says: "I suffered such awful pain I could not lie down. I was perfectly helpless for six months. My ankles were so badly swollen I could not wear my shoes. Soon after using Doan's Kidney Pills I was able to walk without crutches. I gradually improved until I ceased to bleed and the kidneys became normal."

Remember the name—Doan's. For sale by all dealers. 50 cents a box.

Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, N. Y.

ENGAGEMENT NOW OUT.

Ethel—Weren't you surprised when you heard about my horse running away with me?

Ernest—Not very. I'd do the same thing myself if I got the chance.

BABY'S SKIN TORTURE

"When our baby was seven weeks old he broke out with what we thought was heat, but which gradually grew worse. We called in a doctor. He said it was eczema and from that time we doctored six months with three of the best doctors in Atchison but he only got worse. His face, head and hands were a solid sore. There was no end to the suffering for him. We had to tie his little hands to keep him from scratching. He never knew what it was to sleep well from the time he took the disease until he was cured. He kept us awake all hours of the night and his health wasn't what you would call good. We tried everything but the right thing."

"Finally I got a set of the Cuticura Remedies and I am pleased to say we did not use all of them until he was cured. We have waited a year and a half to see if it would return but it never has and to-day his skin is clear and fair as it possibly could be. I hope Cuticura may save some one else's little ones suffering and also their pocket-books. John Leason, 1403 Atchison St., Atchison, Kan., Oct. 19, 1909."

Points to Good Future.

Seven poor children, four girls and three boys, all about ten years old, went to a nearby seashore resort, in charge of two women, for a day's outing. The funds for the picnic were provided by two boys who sell papers and who live in one of the two houses from which the excursion party was recruited. One of the women in charge of the children said that the boys had arranged the outing "of their own accord, and the remarkable thing is this: They are not good boys by any means and one of them is probably the naughtiest boy in the neighborhood. But we think that when boys do little things like this they will come out all right."—New York Tribune.

No Help Needed.

A little miss of five years who had been allowed to stay up for an evening party, was told about 8:30 to go to bed. Very, very slowly she moved toward the stair. An aunt, seeing her reluctant, asked:

"Helen, can I do anything to help you?"

"No," replied Helen, "I will get there altogether too soon as it is."

Itching Piles Permanently Cured by a Jar of Resinol Ointment.

NOT CUT OUT FOR SOLDIER

Widow Healy Indulges in Some Plain Speaking to Her Devoted but Timid Lover.

The courting of the Widow Healy by Terence Corcoran was a tedious affair to every one in Magraw place, most of all to the widow herself, who tried various expedients to assist her timid admirer.

"I'm thinking I might go for a sojer," Terence announced one night, when his fancy had been stirred by a newspaper account of a military pageant. "I'm not so old but I could do it. I was want in a school regiment."

"You go for a sojer!" cried the Widow Healy in mingled scorn and alarm. "A man that calls on a lone widow for two years and more, wid-out pluck enough to spake his mind, hasn't the makings of a drummer boy in him."

Woman's Power

Over Man

Woman's most glorious endowment is the power to awaken and hold the pure and honest love of a worthy man. When she loses it and still loves on, no one in the wide world can know the heart agony she endures. The woman who suffers from weakness and derangement of her special womanly organism soon loses the power to sway the heart of a man. Her general health suffers and she loses her good looks, her attractiveness, her amiability and her power and prestige as a woman. Dr. R. V. Pierce, of Buffalo, N. Y., with the assistance of his staff of able physicians, has prescribed for and cured many thousands of women. He has devised a successful remedy for woman's ailments. It is known as Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription. It is a positive specific for the weaknesses and disorders peculiar to women. It purifies, regulates, strengthens and heals. Medicine dealers sell it. No honest dealer will advise you to accept a substitute in order to make a little larger profit.
